

Starr-Waterman

American Popular Music

Chapter 7: “Choo Choo Ch’Boogie”: The Postwar Era, 1946–1954

Filmography

It Started in Naples (1960): Film about Italian Americans that included the song “Mambo Italiano” which included Italian American slang and became part of the repertoire of nostalgic pop in the Italian American community.

Married to the Mob (1988): Film about Italian Americans that included the song “Mambo Italiano,” which included Italian American slang and became part of the repertoire of nostalgic pop in the Italian American community.