

Ethics will be treated as a pervasive element to both FLK 1 & FLK 2. The SRA will expect candidates to spot and manage ethical issues in all contexts. According to the Oct 22 SRA figures, Ethics was one of the lowest scoring areas in both FLK 1 & 2.

Due to the importance of considering the ethical side of law in the SQE exams, we have a dedicated, pervasive Ethics, Professional Conduct & Client Care chapter in our introduction. Below are some of the points the chapter helps to cover.

Ethics Introduction Chapter

Ethical based MCQs are woven throughout the practice questions and mock assessments to match the centralised exams.

Code of conduct
Compliance officers
Complaints

Conflict of interest
Confidentiality
Undertakings
Money laundering
Client care
