before the relevant Review Date and so that in case of such arbitration the revised rent to be awarded by the arbitrator shall be such as he shall decide should be the yearly rent (exclusive of Value Added Tax) at the relevant Review Date for the demised premises

- (a) on the following assumptions at that date:
- (i) that the demised premises are fully fitted out to the requirements of the willing tenant and are fit for immediate occupation and use and that no work has been carried out thereon by the Tenant its sub-tenants or their predecessors in title during the Term which has diminished the rental value of the demised premises and that in case the demised premises or the access thereto or any conduits serving the demised premises have been destroyed or damaged by the insured risks that they have been fully restored
 - (ii) that the demised premises are available to let on the open market by a willing Landlord to a willing Tenant as a whole without a premium by either party but with vacant possession and subject to the provisions of this Lease (other than the amount of the rent hereby reserved but including the provisions for rent review) for a Term equal to the residue of the Term of this lease at the relevant Review Date with rent reviews at similar intervals
 - (iii) that no reduction is to be made to take account of any rental concession which on a new letting with vacant possession might be granted to an incoming tenant for a period within which its fitting out works would take place or in respect of disturbance that may have been caused to the Tenant during refurbishment works carried out at the beginning of the Term

- (iv) that the covenants herein contained on the part of the Tenant have been fully performed and observed and having regard to the open market values current at the relevant Review Date
- (b) But disregarding:
 - (i) any effect on the rent of the fact that the Tenant its sub-tenants or their respective predecessors in title have been in occupation of the demised premises
 - (ii) any goodwill attached to the demised premises by reason of the carrying on thereat of the business of the Tenant its sub-tenants or their predecessors on their respective businesses
 - (iii) any increase in the rental value of the demised premises attributable to the existence at the relevant Review Date of any improvement to the demised premises or any part thereof otherwise than in pursuance of an obligation to the Landlord or its predecessors in title (except obligations requiring compliance with statutes or directions of local authorities or other bodies exercising powers under statute or Royal Charter) by the Tenant its sub-tenants or predecessors in title during the Term but in such disregard no allowance shall be made for any notional loss of use whilst such improvements are being carried out
 - (iv) all tenants fixtures and fittings within the demised premises
 - (v) any adverse effect on rent of any temporary works, operations or other activities on any neighbouring or adjoining property

3. IT IS HEREBY FURTHER PROVIDED in relation to the said revised rent as follows:

- (a) The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the Arbitration Act 1996 or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force with the further provision that if the arbitrator nominated pursuant to paragraph 3 hereof shall die or decline to act the President for the time being of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors or the person acting on his behalf may on the application of either the Landlord or the Tenant by writing discharge the arbitrator and appoint another in his place

- (b) When the amount of any rent to be ascertained as hereinbefore provided shall have been so ascertained as memoranda thereof shall thereupon be signed by or on behalf of the Landlord and the Tenant and annexed to this lease and counterpart thereof and the parties shall bear their own costs in respect thereof
- (c) (i) If revised rent payable on and from any Review Date has not been agreed by that Review Date rent shall continue to be payable at the rate previously payable and forthwith upon the revised rent being ascertained the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord any shortfall between the rent and the revised rent payable up to and on the preceding quarter day together with interest upon each instalment thereof from the date upon which the same would have been payable to the date of actual payment thereof at the Four per cent above the base rate from time to time of the Royal Bank Of Scotland PLC
- (ii) for the purpose of this proviso the revised rent shall be deemed to have been ascertained on the date when the same has been agreed between the parties or as the case may be the date of the determination by the arbitrator

THE FOURTH SCHEDULE

Form of AUTHORISED GUARANTEE AGREEMENT

1. In this Deed “the Assignee” means the person or persons company or companies which the Authorised Guarantor guarantees under the provision of this Schedule being the relevant Assignee as referred to in (as applicable) Section 16 (1) or Section 16(6) of the Landlord and Tenant (Covenants) Act 1995 (“the 1995 Act”)
2. To the extent (but only to the extent) that the provisions of this Deed are not an Authorised Guarantee complying with the provisions of Section 16 of the 1995 Act then the same shall not be enforceable but such unenforceability shall not prejudice the other parts of this Schedule
3. The Assignee shall at all time during the Term (but not for the avoidance of doubt so as to impose on the Authorised Guarantor any liability restriction or other requirement of whatever nature in relation to any time after the Assignee is released from its covenants in this Lease by virtue of the 1995 Act) pay rents and all other sums reserved and made payable by this Lease and in the manner and at the respective times appointed for their payment and shall perform and observe all the covenants on the part of the Tenant and the conditions and provisions contained in the Lease and the Authorised Guarantor will pay and make good to the Landlord on demand any losses damages costs and/or expenses suffered or incurred by the Landlord by reason of any failure of the Assignee to do so Provided that any neglect delay or forbearance of the Landlord in enforcing or giving time to the Tenant for payment of such rents or other sums or the performance or observance of any such covenants conditions and provisions or (but subject to the overriding provisions of Section 18 of the 1995 Act) any variation in the Terms of this Lease (including but not by way of limitation any reviews of the rent or licences or consents given by the Landlord or Deeds of Variation entered into between the Landlord and the Tenant) or the transfer of the Landlord's reversion or the release of any one of the persons acting as Authorised Guarantor (if more than one) from the liability under this Lease or any other act omission matter or thing by which (but for this provision) the Authorised Guarantor would be exonerated either wholly or in part from this covenant and/or indemnified (other than a release under seal given by the Landlord) shall not release or in any way lessen or affect the liability of the Authorised Guarantor to the Landlord

4. If the Assignee goes into liquidation and the Liquidator disclaims this Lease or if the Tenant for the time being is an individual and becomes bankrupt and the Trustee in Bankruptcy disclaims this Lease the Authorised Guarantor shall if required by the Landlord within three months of such event accept from and execute and deliver to the Landlord a counterpart of a new lease of the demised premises for a Term continuing for the residue of the Term which (but for such disclaimer) would have then remained unexpired of the Term such new lease to be at the cost of the Authorised Guarantor and to reserve the same rents and other sums as were then reserved and made payable by this Lease and to contain Tenants covenants (as defined in the 1995 Act) as are no more onerous than those of this Lease (but incorporating for the avoidance of doubt the provisions of any Deeds or documents subsequently varying the Lease which are similarly no more onerous than the Tenants covenants)

THE FIFTH SCHEDULE

Covenants by the Surety

1. The Surety hereby irrevocably and unconditionally GUARANTEES to the Landlord as a continuing guarantee the payment when due of all sums due owing or outstanding from the Tenant to the Landlord under the Lease and the due performance by the Tenant of the Tenant's Covenants and agrees to indemnify the Landlord from and against all loss damage costs and expenses which the Landlord may suffer through or arising from any failure by the Tenant to perform any of the Tenant's Covenants or any failure by the Tenant duly fully and punctually to pay any such sum or any other sum required to be paid by it in relation to or otherwise to perform its said obligations.

2. The Surety HEREBY FURTHER COVENANTS irrevocably and unconditionally with the Landlord that if the Tenant shall become insolvent and/or the Lease is vested in the Crown as bona vacantia and/or the Lease is disclaimed and/or forfeited and/or the Term is otherwise determined prior to its contractual expiry the surety will (if so required by the Landlord within 1 year of the Landlord learning of the relevant event) accept from and execute and deliver to the Landlord a counterpart of a new lease of the Demised Premises for a Term commencing on the date of such disclaimer or other event putting an end to the effect of the Lease as aforesaid and continuing for the residue then remaining unexpired of the Term the Surety to be responsible for the costs of both parties in connection with such new lease (together with any Value Added Tax payable thereon) and to reserve the same rents and other sums as are then reserved and made payable by the Lease and to be subject to the same covenants conditions and provisions (including the provisions for the review of rent at the times and in manner contained in the Lease) as are contained in the Lease PROVIDED THAT if the Lease was excluded from Sections 24 to 28 (inclusive) of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 the Surety shall if required by the Landlord obtain jointly with the Landlord a valid Court Order authorising the exclusion of such new lease therefrom (or from any enactment modifying replacing re-enacting or extending the same) prior to its completion and shall enter the appropriate declaration therein at completion to give effect to such authorisation and shall indemnify the Landlord against all expenses additionally thereby incurred.

3. All sums payable hereunder by the Surety shall be paid immediately on demand by the Landlord in full without any deduction withholding counter-claim or set off and if the Surety is compelled by law to make any deduction or withholding from any such sums or if any payment hereunder shall be or become subject to any tax duty levy or impost of any nature (whether before or after the same has been paid to the Landlord) excluding any tax (other than Value Added Tax) assessable on the Landlord in respect of any income from the Demised premises the Surety shall (insofar as permitted by law) immediately pay to the Landlord such additional amount or amounts as will result in payment to and retention by the Landlord of the full amount which would have been received and retained by the Landlord but for such deduction or withholding or the imposition of such tax duty levy or impost.

4. Without prejudice to the Landlord's rights against the Tenant as between the Landlord and the Surety the Surety shall be liable hereunder as if it were solely and principally liable and not merely a surety and its liability hereunder shall not be released discharged or diminished by:
 - (a) any legal limitation lack of capacity or authorisation or defect in the actions of the Tenant in relation to any invalidity or unenforceability of or any variation (whether or not agreed by the Surety) of any of the Terms of this Lease the insolvency (or in the case of an individual Tenant death) of the Tenant or any change in the Tenant's identity constitution status or control; or
 - (b) any forbearance neglect or delay in seeking performance of the obligations of

- the Tenant any granting of time indulgence or other relief to the Tenant in relation to such performance or any composition with discharge waiver or release of the Tenant; or
- (c) any other act omission fact or circumstance which might otherwise release discharge or diminish the liability of a guarantor
5. Any release settlement or discharge between the Landlord and the Surety shall be conditional upon no security or payment made or given to the Landlord being avoided reduced set aside or rendered unenforceable by virtue of any provision or enactment now or hereafter in force relating to bankruptcy insolvency or liquidation and if any such security or payment shall be avoided reduced set aside or rendered unenforceable the Landlord shall be entitled to recover the full amount or value of any such security or payment from the Surety and otherwise to enforce this Schedule as if such release settlement or discharge had not taken place.
6. This guarantee is given to the Landlord by the Surety under seal and shall ensure for the avoidance of doubt not merely for the benefit of the Landlord but for the benefit of any successor in title (however such title devolves) of the Landlord.
7. The Surety HEREBY FURTHER COVENANTS with the Landlord
- (a) to notify the Landlord from time to time in writing forthwith of any change (in the case of a company) to the registered office of the Surety or (in the case of an individual) to the address of the Surety and any notice request application consent approval or other notification served by the Landlord on the Surety

shall be deemed to have been given or delivered if by letter forty eight hours after posting it if by delivery when left at the relevant address and if by telex when transmitted and shall be effectual notwithstanding any change of address not so notified

- (b) to keep the Landlord fully and effectually indemnified from and against all actions demands claims liabilities losses damages costs and expenses whatsoever (including all interest penalties legal and other costs and expenses together with Value Added Tax thereon if applicable) arising directly or indirectly through the failure or omission by the Surety to comply with paragraph 7(a) above
